New Labor Bill—

Fourth Change Is Voted

Senate Approves A Non-Communist Oath Requirement

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The senate today wrote another Taft-Hartley law feature into the Truman labor bill—a requirement for non-communist oaths.

The main differences between the amendment and the present law are that under the amendment:

Both union and company leaders would have to swear they are not communists, fascists, or supporters of a subversive organization, if the union or company wished to take collective bargaining action before the NLRB. The Taft-Hartley law requires only union officers—not employees—to take the affidavit, and fascism is not mentioned specifically.

Not only "officers" but members of "policy-making" bodies would have to sign.

No affidavits would be required if the union or the company could satisfy the NLRB that it was doing an effective job of barring subversive persons from leadership. The Taft-Hartley law makes no such exemption.

Three other amendments which have a Taft-Hartley look about them were added to the administration measure by the senate yesterday in the first voting of its long labor law debate.

The changes, all approved by voice votes with no audible opposition, would: (1) require unions, as well as management, to bargain in good faith; (2) guarantee freedom of speech, short of threats or promises of benefits, in labor relations; and (3) require both unions and employers to file annual financial reports.

Differences Slight. Those provisions are not in every case identical to sections of the Taft-Hartley law, but the differences generally are slight.

The amendments had no blessing from President Truman, who publicly has opposed any revision of the administration bill.

That bill would repeal the Taft-Hartley law and replace it with a slightly modified version of the old Wagner act.

The big test is yet to come. It is on a substitute offered by Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) and two other Republicans. It would keep all the basic Taft-Hartley provisions, including labor-banned injunctions to halt national emergency labor disputes, and the ban on the closed shop.

Judith Coplon—

Charges Termed All Lies

Defendant Denies Taking Information

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Judith Coplon denied today that she ever was a communist, engaged in subversion or was guilty of "any offense against the United States."

Specifically she denied that she ever took information on espionage in the United States from confidential justice department files.

The defendant, former political analyst in the justice department, is accused of having filed secrets for the benefit of Russia. She was arrested in New York March 4 in company with Valentine A. Gubitchev, a Russian then employed by the United Nations.

Federal agents said they found secret material in her pocketbook. Miss Coplon was called to the stand as her own star witness.

30 Deaths Attributed To Heat

New England Drouth Continues; Forest Fire Peril Increases

(By The Associated Press)

Deaths of 30 New Englanders were attributed today to five days of hot and humid weather in the east.

The forest fire peril increased in New England with the continued drouth. Smoking and fire making in the Main woodlands was forbidden by order of Gov. Frederick G. Payne. There were 15 small, controlled fires in the state.

New Hampshire followed Maine's action in banning smoking and fire making.

The U. S. weather bureau in Chicago said there was no sign of rain to break the dry spell. A high pressure area off the coast prevented landward conditions from changing.

CWA Union Asks Bell Approval

CHICAGO—(AP)—The CIO Communications Workers of America announced today a campaign for recognition by the Bell Telephone System, to be backed by a nationwide strike, if necessary.

Joseph A. Biernie, president of the CWA, said that Bell telephone companies have withdrawn recognition from 37 of the union's divisions since May 6 when the CWA membership voted to join the CIO.

The CWA membership then claimed by officers to number 230,000, was taken into the CIO May 9, when a charter was issued by the large congress of unions.

During the present convention the CWA affiliated with the telephone workers organizing committee, claiming a membership of 60,000. This the CWA now represents a membership of 320,000 workers in the telephone industry.

Need Of More Pastors Told At Evangelical U.B. Conference

BLUE SPRINGS, Neb.—(AP)—The need for more ministers "to dedicate their lives to full-time Christian service" was stressed at the opening session of the 71st annual Nebraska conference of the Evangelical United Brethren church here Wednesday night.

Rev. William C. Rembolt, superintendent of the Lincoln district, called for more young people to enter the ministry.

Bishop C. H. Stauffacher, Kansas City, Mo., delivered the sermon at communion services opening the five-day conference attended by more than 100 representatives of 68 churches. Bishop Stauffacher noted that next year will be the 100th anniversary of the Evangelical U.B. church.

Rev. Harvey A. Schwab, Win-slow, was re-elected conference secretary. He has served 10 terms and his father served 25 years before him.

Cash Wheat Price Tumbles 7-Cents

Cash price paid farmers for farmers for wheat delivered in Lincoln tumbled seven cents Thursday to a new low of $1.84 a bushel for 1949.

The going price is 23 cents below the government support price in Lancaster county. The cash wheat price Wednesday was $1.91.

Opening of the wheat harvest in the Kansas area was one of the big factors in the fall, according to local elevator operators. The first grain to arrive at Kansas City elevators was delivered Tuesday from the wheat fields.

Old Is Mixed With New In "Opportunity Bond" Parade

... "Covered Wagon" In First Midwest Appearance

The old was mixed with the new depicting a century of progress and opportunity as Lincoln Thursday held its "Opportunity Bond" drive parade.

The clatter of hoof beats mingled with the purr of sleek automobiles to form a pageant of color and sound through the streets which were once nothing more than obscure cow-paths.

Representing the old in the parade were more than 20 cow-boys and cowgirls, young and old, astride prancing, spirited horses, and a replica of the famous old covered wagons of 1849 that crossed the Nebraska plains.

Cowboys, Cowgirls. And the new was there in the form of the modern automobile, noiseless and shiny.

A couple of teen-age cowgirls, however, couldn't quite shake off the new for the old. They were decked in cowboy hats, brightly-colored plaid shirts, blue jeans, but "bobby-sox" and "saddle shoes" instead of cowboy boots and spurs. But the horses didn't seem to mind.

Many spectators, mostly children, were seen at a "real cowboy and covered wagon" were scattered along the parade route.

The "Opportunity Bond" drive slogan—"Be a Modern 49'er. Buy U. S. Savings Bonds"—was painted on the canvas top of the wagon.

Governor Val Peterson, Mayor Clarence G. Miles, Howard Hadley, Lincoln chairman of the bond drive, F. E. Reishus and Fred Bjornson, International Harvester officials, were among the dignitaries who led the parade preceded by a police escort.

Then came the covered wagon, the horseback riders, a sound truck and a fleet of new models of automobiles placed in the parade by local dealers.

Route of the parade was west on O street from Twenty-third to Sixteenth street, south to N street and west on N to Ninth street; north on Ninth to P street; east on P to Sixteenth street; south on Sixteenth to O street; and west on O street to the city hall.

At the city hall, the parade was welcomed by City Personnel Director Ray Ramsey.

Ideal Way To Save. "1949 was the year of the great California gold rush and the United States treasury is using this anniversary as the basis for the "Opportunity Bond" drive which is now in full swing.

"This is one way of calling the attention of the people of the country to United States savings bonds as being the ideal way to save and invest."

Lincoln was the first of thirteen Nebraska cities at which the covered wagon will make an appearance.

The wagon will be displayed at the city hall Thursday and then move to Omaha Friday.

The quota in the "Opportunity Bond" drive is $1,040,000,000 in series E bonds. The drive was started May 16 and lasts until June 30.

Preliminary forms of petitions for referendum votes on the one cent gas tax and motor vehicle license increases were found to "comply with the laws of the state governing referendum petitions" by Robert A. Nelson, assistant attorney general.

Nelson in a letter to Secretary of State Frank March Thursday passed upon the proposed form and said that March would be responsible for determining the sufficiency of signatures if the petitions were filed.

Nebraska Farm Bureau Federation, Farmers Union and Grange have announced that they will circulate the petitions to place the referendum on the 1950 ballot.

The next move will be for the sponsors to bring before Secretary of State March the full list of sponsoring individuals and groups and the printed form of the petitions.

The gas tax increase is now in effect but the license fee increase bill is not effective until Aug. 27.

Civic Groups Will Honor Miss Winter At Open House

An open house complimenting Miss S. Adelia Winter who is retiring from Lincoln's public school system after many years of service, will be held in the club room of the YWCA on Friday evening, June 24, from 7:30 to 10:30 p. m.

All friends of Miss Winter are invited to attend without further invitation, and a special invitation is issued to all her present and former students from Irving junior and Lincoln high schools, and to members of groups in which she has participated, as Parent-Teachers association, women's division of the chamber of commerce, Y.W.C.A., Camp Fire Girls, A.A.U.W., P.E.O., city recreation department, and the Lincoln Teachers association.

Tentative plans for the open house were made when a group of men and women representing civic organizations held a luncheon meeting at Miller's. Included on the committee are Mrs. Elden Hiltz, chairman; Ben Norris, Mrs. L. W. Boyde, Mrs. E. V. Mulligan, representing P.T.A.; Mrs. Clifford Jorgensen, Lincoln Recreation board; Mrs. C. E. Keefer, P.E.O.; Mrs. Clifford Hicks, A.A.U.W.; Miss Elizabeth Wright, Lincoln school instructors; Mrs. Shirley Martin, Irving junior high school faculty; Mrs. Hazel Smith, Forum; Mrs. Irene Barber, women's division of the chamber of commerce; Norma Carpenter, Camp Fire Girls; Mrs. C. Petrus Peterson, Y.W.C.A.; and Miss Elizabeth Elmen, Lincoln Teachers association.

Mr. Norris was named chairman of the gift committee, to receive contributions for a token gift to Miss Winter.

When a reporter said the first thing Jefferson did was to release 11 newspaper publishers, Mr. Truman laughed and said Jefferson probably made a mistake. He added that Jefferson also released a federal judge.

The president said hysteria happens after every great war. He recalled that the Ku Klux Klan wanted to clean up the country after the first world war and mentioned the activities of the K.K.K. in Indiana.

Asked if the executive branch of the government was affected by hysteria, the president said it was not, but added he will clear them out if he finds any.

Two Cases Prosecuted. The justice department at present is prosecuting two major cases involving alleged aid to foreign agents.

Judith Coplon, former justice department employee, is on trial here, accused of espionage for Russia.

Alger Hiss, former state department official, is on trial in New York on charges of perjury. The charges grew out of allegations that Hiss gave secret government information to a communist spy ring courier.

A reporter for the Providence (R. I.) Journal asked for comment on an editorial in his paper calling for a high level investigation of the FBI.

Hoover Hasn't Quit. The reporter said the editorial called for a quiet, closed inquiry. This prompted the president to ask whether the reporter ever heard of a quiet investigation in Washington. Mr. Truman added he had no comment.

He said Mr. Hoover, head of the FBI, had not resigned. He said Hoover reports to him from time to time and he frequently takes up matters with him through Attorney General Clark.

"Does Mr. Hoover have your confidence?" a reporter asked.

The president replied that Hoover has done a good job.

The question dealt with a published report of a quarrel between the FBI boss and Clark.

A reporter recalled that last week the president said he was not a "hysterical" man and that he was not a "hysterical" man.

The president repeated that's all it is. Asked whether Hoover could be included among the headline hunters, the president invited reporters to make their own assay of the situation.

Brannan Plan

President Truman said he wants the Brannan farm plan enacted at this session. He predicted congressional action.

The president added at the news conference that all of it may get through this session, but he contended that some of it already has gone through.

He disagreed with some press reports from the democratic party's Des Moines conference early this week that the plan would be (Continued on Page Two)

U. P. STRIKE VOTE TAKEN

... Ballots Due July 1

PORTLAND, Ore. — (AP) — Trainmen and switchmen of the Union Pacific railroad here have been given strike ballots in what is termed a system-wide contract dispute.

According to E. W. Bray, Portland local chairman of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, the vote stemmed from the failure of a mediation board to settle four contract issues. Ballots are due July 1.

Bray said the principal question deals with the size of train crews. He said the brotherhood wants three brakemen on trains up to 40 cars and four for longer trains. The crew issue was vital in California where voters defeated last November a full-crew referendum bill, he added.

8937,597 Spent By Game Commission

The state game and fish commission spent $8,937,597 between April 1, 1948 and Feb. 28, 1949, an audit by Ray Johnson, state auditor released today showed.

Among the largest expenditures were $261,741 for salaries, $122,351 for travel and $114,406 for purchase of land. Receipts for the 11 months were $589,747. The expenditures, larger than income, were made possible by a balance of $654,495 which was reduced to $306,645.

The audit showed that $33,838 in accounts of 1948 were carried over to 1949 for collection. The audit showed that in every year since 1933 the commission has failed to collect money due it for sale of licenses. The most successful year was 1939 when only $46 was uncollected. In 1942, there was failure to collect $510. There is due $273 for 1947 and $220 for 1948.

Nelson Kraschel To Address Young Demo Convention

YORK, Neb.—(AP)—Nelson G. Kraschel, former Iowa governor and general agent of the Farm Credit Administration in Omaha, will be the banquet speaker at the young democrats state convention here.

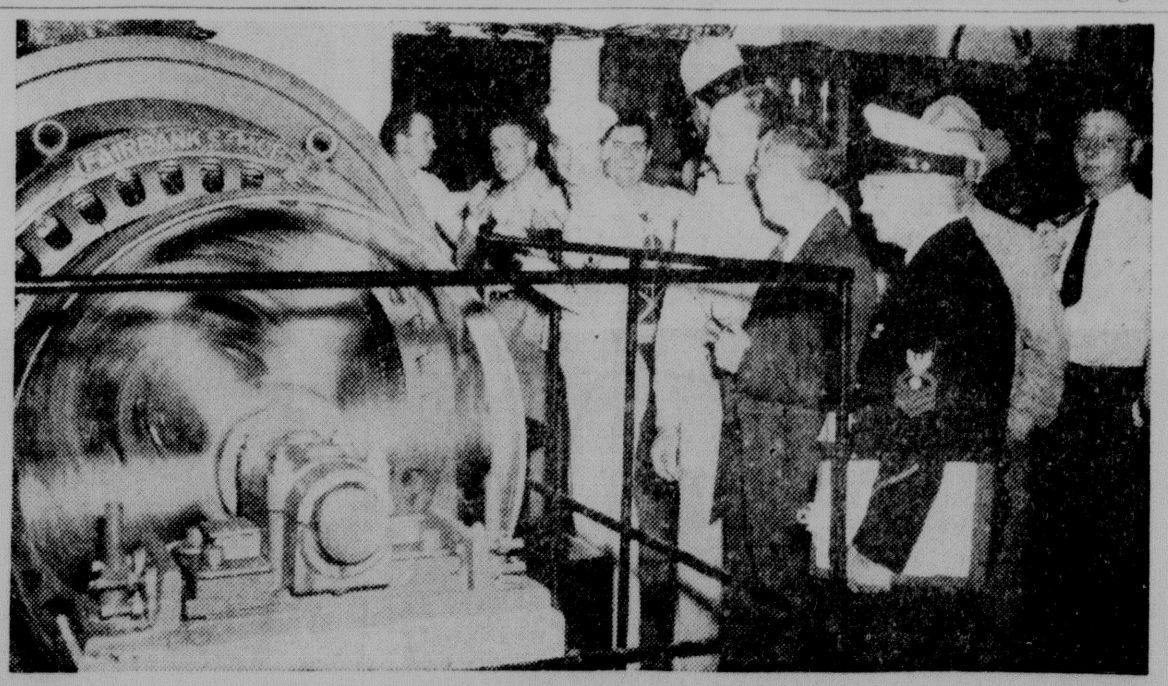

The announcement was made today by R. C. Tondreau, convention arrangement chairman. Originally it had been planned to have Sen. Robert Kerr (D-Okla.) for Saturday night's banquet address, but Kerr was unable to make the trip.

As the democrats completed plans for their convention the question of a possible floor fight on the chairmanship now held by Vern Taylor of St. Paul arose. Taylor said he would seek a second term.

Taylor was central figure in a clash between the old Lancaster county young democratic club and executive committee several months ago when Taylor ordered the suspension of the club's charter.

Rent Law Target Of VFW Drive

Group To Seek People's Voice On Decontrol

OMAHA—(AP)—A drive was under way today to bring Nebraska's rent decontrol law to a vote of the people.

The Nebraska Veterans of Foreign Wars, before winding up their state convention here Wednesday, adopted a resolution which would launch a petition drive for a referendum on the law.

The decontrol measure was passed over the governor's veto. It is slated to become effective by Nov. 1.

The resolution was approved by voice vote described by a V.F.W. spokesman as "overwhelming."

Jacobson New Commander. Concluding its four-day meeting here, the state V.F.W. elected Jack Jacobson, Lexington, as department commander. He succeeds Larry Gaughen, North Bend.

Mrs. Hazel Null, Lincoln, was elected president of the auxiliary. The aim of the petition campaign is a vote of the people on the rent decontrol law in the 1950 election.

The VFW will take "immediate steps to have the petitions circulated" to obtain the signatures of 10 per cent of the voters and to meet other requirements for obtaining a referendum vote, the group decided.

MRS. HAZEL NULL, Lincoln, will head Nebraska VFW auxiliary for the coming year.

The aim of the VFW is to "keep the bill from going into force until the issue can be decided by a vote of the people," the resolution said. "Steps also will be taken to mobilize all interested individuals, labor groups, veteran groups and tenant groups to support the VFW in the petition drive."

In Lincoln, Secretary of State Frank Marshall said that 47,634 signatures would be necessary to suspend the decontrol act. They would have to come from at least 38 different counties or two-fifths of the total number of counties in the state.

Must File By Aug. 27. Only 23,817 signatures—five per cent—would be necessary to place the question on the ballot in 1950. But in the meantime the decontrol act would take effect on Aug. 27 with Nov. 1 as the deadline for ending present controls.

The petitions with sufficient signatures must be filed by Aug. 27 to suspend the act.

Other department officers elected include: Harold Hamlin, Lincoln, senior vice commander; J. Warren O'Meara, Hastings, junior vice commander; Frank E. Vavrick, Omaha, quartermaster; the Rev. Edmund C. Walsh, Omaha, chaplain; Dr. Roy Jacobson, Lexington, surgeon; Melvin Moss, Fairbury, judge advocate.

Auxiliary officers include Mrs. Lauretta Griffen, Lincoln, secretary, and Mrs. Grace Klingel, Lincoln, patriotic instructor.

Jacobson, 27, the new commander, was a marine corps sergeant in World War II. He served in the Pacific theater. He is connected with a Lexington flour mill.

Jacobson has been serving as state junior vice commander.

The program calls for subsidies to farmers and lower prices for consumers.

Mr. Truman said some news reports had given the impression that delay was in the cards, but the conference took no such stand. He said that is not the objective at all—that farm legislation is part of the democratic platform and he is trying to get that through.

Mr. Truman made his comments on farm legislation as he participated in a session in Congress behind a bill that would bypass both the administration measure and the Aiken law due to go into effect Jan. 1.

The new proposal would continue rigid 90 per cent of parity price supports on major farm products for another year. The Aiken law sets up a flexible system of supports at 80 to 90 per cent of parity. Parity is a price calculated to be fair alike to producer and consumer.

Employment Mr. Truman said he does not regard present unemployment as critical.

His statement was in reply to a news conference question. The president added that the administration's viewpoint on unemployment will be expressed in an economic message now being prepared for Congress. The message probably will go to the Capitol in three or four weeks.

Mr. Truman presumably referred to his regular twice-yearly economic report.

The latest census bureau report shows 3,289,000 persons are now out of work and looking for jobs.

The question of unemployment was raised by a reporter who asked about Mr. Truman's conference yesterday with Walter P. Reuther, president of the CIO Automobile Workers.

Reuther reported on leaving the White House that the administration was aware of the unemployment situation and would act aggressively. He called for an immediate national conference to halt what he said appears to be a looming depression.

1952 President Truman had no comment on a report that he will not run again for president in 1952.

He was informed at his news conference that a magazine had printed such a story, but would not be drawn out on it.

Boy Accidentally Shot With Rifle Sixteen-year-old Donald Duckett, 3000 South Fifty-eighth, was accidentally shot in the leg Wednesday afternoon when his 22 rifle discharged while being handled by a neighbor boy.

After being treated for the wound by his doctor, the boy was returned home. The youth's mother said the doctor planned to remove the slug from his right knee joint next week.

The incident occurred when Donald and two neighbor boys were playing along the creek bank near the Duckett home about 4 p. m., Wednesday.

Texas Man Sends County 408 Pennies For '48 Auto Tax Even tax-collecting has its peculiarities.

Thursday, County Treasurer C. E. Berg received a small carton containing two regular shopping packages on which 408 pennies were held by strips of cellulose tape. It was sent by a Corpus Christi, Tex., man who formerly lived at Huskerville.

Written on the inside of the carton was, "Cahill, John Joseph, Jr., page 519 C."

Page 519 C of the tax book lists Cahill's 1948 motor vehicle tax of $3.61. The extra pennies are apparently interest for the delinquent tax, Berg said.

Berg commented that the pennies would have to be cleaned, probably with gasoline, after they have been removed from the sheets.

Maj. Finn To Head Marine Reserve Unit

Will Commission Fighting Squadron 113 Here, July 1

Maj. Edward V. Finn, commanding officer of the Lincoln marine air detachment, will "skipper" training of Marine reserve fighting squadron 113 which will be commissioned July 1 at the naval air station at the Lincoln municipal airport.

The unit will bear the designation of one of the Marine's most famous fighting squadrons—the "Whistling Devils"—which played a spectacular role in Pacific operations in World War II.

Maj. Finn, 32-year-old commanding officer of the marine air detachment, is a native of Hartford, Conn., where he was graduated from high school. He received his bachelor of science degree in sociology from the University of Connecticut in 1940.

Combat Pilot. He was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps in June, 1940, and earned a naval pilot rating in May, 1943.

He commanded Marine fighting squadrons at Cherry Point, N. C., and Mojave, Calif., before participating with marine squadrons giving tactical fighter support to marine ground forces at Iwo Jima and Okinawa in 1944.

Recommend Local Business Zoning For East O Area

The zoning status of O street from Forty-fourth to Forty-eighth is back in the hands of the city council.

The city council Monday referred the matter to the zoning board after denying a request by Perry Rohrbaugh to zone O street from Witherbee boulevard to Forty-seventh to local business. The council asked the board to study the feasibility of zoning O street from Forty-fourth to Forty-eighth in one sweep.

At their meeting Thursday morning the board recommended that the whole area be zoned local business. The city council will now pass on the recommendation. Their recommendation covers the area 160 feet in depth on the north side. On the south side, however, the lots would be zoned "as now platted."

Expect Opposition. Chauncy Barney was the only board member to dissent. He termed the action "a very poor type of zoning." He said it has not been the policy of the board to zone large areas upon application of only one property owner.

Attorney Leonard Dunker, appearing for Rohrbaugh, admitted he expects opposition from property owners in the area. The property owners will appear at public hearings of the city council Monday.

In other action the zoning board:

Granted the application of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company for a change from residential to industrial the land east of Forty-eighth street south of the Burlington tracks. A new elevator is planned for the area.

Granted the application of Southminster U. E. B. church for a change from residential A to B thirteenth street from Van Dorn to Otter. The church had originally asked that just its lot be re-zoned. Monday, however, their application was amended when property owners in the area agreed to allow the whole block front be changed.

Denied the request of John H. Hiltner for a change from residence A to C at 2306 South Fourteenth. The board termed the request "spot zoning."

the naval staff which entered the Japanese homeland soon after V-J day for the purpose of securing vital intelligence concerning Japanese aviation.

Here In 1946. He returned to Cherry Point in 1946 after two years overseas and served with air support and night fighter squadrons there before coming to Lincoln as commanding officer of the Lincoln marine air reserve detachment.

Major and Mrs. Finn have two children, Thomas A. "Mickey," age 6, and Patricia Ann, 4. They live at 2423 A street.

The commissioning of the marine reserve squadron at Lincoln will bring the strength of the marine air reserve training command to a total of 30 fighting squadrons and eight ground control intercept squadrons based at 25 naval air stations strategically located throughout the country.

The squadron, commanded by Capt. Neil Winthrow, Lincoln, will ultimately consist of 30 pilots, seven ground officers and 110 enlisted men of the organized marine reserve from the Lincoln area.

The marine air detachment, commanded by Major Finn, will include Capt. Jim Cooper, Lincoln, as executive officer, M. Sgt. Bob Weddle, Lincoln, as sergeant-major, and men drawn from the Lincoln area.

The squadron will train for the purpose of increasing proficiency in the highly specialized function of marine aviation—close air support to marine ground force in amphibious assault operations.

The squadron will train at Lincoln two week-ends each month and report for two weeks of duty for summer training maneuvers. Members will receive pay according to rank for drills at the air station plus full pay and allowances for summer training maneuvers.

The detachment has been receiving applications for billets in the detachment and squadron and will hold an organization meeting to be announced in the next several days.

Schools Should Aid Students To Live Well-Adjusted Lives

...Harvard Educator Tells N. U. Conference

Public schools should be more than information mills and demonstrators of democratic action. They should prepare students to live well-adjusted and effective lives.

That thought was given Thursday by Dr. Arthur A. Hitchcock of Harvard university to about 100 school administrators attending a guidance conference at the University of Nebraska.

Dr. Hitchcock is assistant director of the guidance center at Harvard and is in Nebraska to help advise school people interested in inaugurating testing, counseling and guidance programs in their own schools. About 15 per cent of Nebraska's high schools now use such service to help students with study and vocational choices.

Good Insurance.

A guidance program properly operated, Dr. Hitchcock said, can be good insurance for both the student and the community which is interested in getting the most for its educational dollar.

At a noon luncheon, Dr. W. R. Carter, specialist in mental measurements at the University of Missouri, reported a co-operative testing program now reaches between 60 and 70 per cent of Missouri's high school seniors.

"The object of the tests," Dr. Carter said, "is to locate the superior students and to encourage them to continue with college work. We feel that we are not making the most efficient use of our educational facilities unless we utilize our most promising student material."

Dr. Carter cautioned, however, that testing is not intended to predict failures. "The purpose of testing is to show the student how much he can expect from himself with how much effort. General intelligence and scholastic record examinations can be the best friends a student has."

Superior Approves Water Bond Issue

SUPERIOR, Neb.—(AP)—A $100,000 bond issue for improvements in the municipal water system has been overwhelmingly approved in a special election. More than 90 per cent of the votes cast favored improvement, which would alleviate a serious water shortage threatening Superior for some time.

Service Pay Hike Probable

Lucas Predicts Bill Given House Approval Will Get By Senate

WASHINGTON — (INS)—Senate Majority Leader Lucas (D-Ill) today predicted swift passage of the house-approved bill providing a substantial pay boost this year for the nation's servicemen.

Lucas termed the measure "a bill that's absolutely necessary to keep army morale where it's needed."

Sen. Tydings (D-Md) called a meeting of his senate armed services committee to consider the legislation immediately after the house action.

Speedy Action Likely.

The committee chairman is sponsoring a similar bill in the senate and is expected to press for speedy hearings and action by his group.

The prospects, therefore, appear good for action by the senate this year despite its heavy backlog of work. If the bill is enacted before adjournment, the pay raises will become effective Oct. 1.

The house bill was approved late Wednesday by voice vote. It provided for more than 300 million dollars a year in pay raises. In passing the measure, the house reversed the action taken May 24 when it rejected a similar, but more costly, piece of legislation by 227 to 163.

Allowances To End In 1952.

While the bill provided pay boosts for all ranks, it did not provide increased compensation for all individuals. Enlisted personnel receiving family allowances would continue to receive them rather than the pay increases, if they were greater, but all family allowances would terminate in June, 1952.

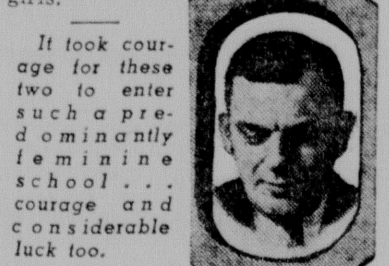

Here are the monthly raises provided in the basic pay of all army ranks (and other comparable military ranks):
Recruit, $75 to $80 (after four months); private, $80 to $82.50; private first class, $82.50 to $85; corporal, $85 to $90; sergeant, $90 to $95; sergeant first class, $95 to $100; master sergeant, $100 to $105; warrant officer (first grade), $105 to $110; warrant officer (second grade), $110 to $115; second lieutenant, $115 to $120; first lieutenant, $120 to $125; captain, $125 to $130; major, $130 to $135; lieutenant colonel, $135 to $140; colonel, $140 to $145; brigadier general, $145 to $150; major general, $150 to $155; lieutenant general, $155 to $160; general, $160 to $165.

It took courage for these two to enter such a predominantly feminine school... courage and considerable luck too.

But let it be said for them that when the time came, they were ready to graduate... they didn't try to stay back for another year.

This is a tough year for college graduates... most places at the top are filled and no one is quite sure what is happening at the bottom.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS ACIDS

Help 15 Miles of Kidney Tubes Flush Out Poisonous Waste

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Miller, Lincoln, were presented insignias of past council officers.

At a dinner preceding the ceremonies, Mrs. Leona McCall, Beatrice, was elected president of the Past Grand Guardians and Past Associate Grand Guardians association. Otto Bullis, Norfolk, was chosen secretary-treasurer at the meeting held at the Y.W.C.A.

128,000,000 Grasshoppers Exterminated

WORLAND, Wyo.—(AP)—Archie Geiser, who riddled a lot of C-54 transports over the hump during the war, went on a bombing mission and killed 128 million of the enemy.

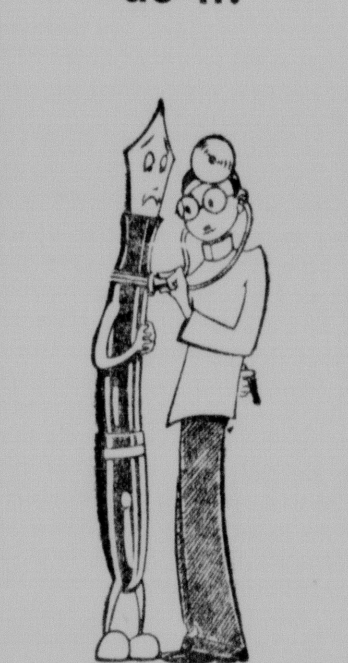

His victims were grasshoppers. His bomb load was 7,350 pounds of poison bran. In 25 minutes over the target area he wiped out enough insects to reach end-to-end from New York to Los Angeles.

This happened on a single flight yesterday. Archie is making about eight a day and will continue this schedule for 30 days. By that time he should be No. 1 on the grasshoppers' black list.

Geiser pilots a C-47, which spearheads the government's air war to head off a new grasshopper invasion of the grain belt. About 25 other smaller planes are being used.

The 128 million is a theoretical but conservative figure. Ground investigations after previous flights have shown a kill of 90 to 95 per cent of 'hoppers in areas pelted with poison.

Farm Women's Exchange

EDITED BY CLARA BELL GRAVES

Address your letters to Mrs. Clara Bell Graves, editor The Lincoln Star Exchange, 905 N. Fifth St., Springfield, Ill.

Boom! Boom! Some morning, you and I will awaken to the boom of a giant firecracker and we will say something like this, "This is the Fourth of July." Ask any child what is the next holiday after school closes and nearly every one will tell you, "It is the Fourth of July."

Have you ever wondered if we are not making a mistake by not calling the day that we celebrate as the Fourth of July by its real name, "Independence Day?" Have we ever really considered the significance of that name in the minds of growing children?

Think of Celebration. When a child celebrates a holiday such as Independence Day, does he think more of the sounds that the celebration makes than of the blessings that he enjoys because men and women fought for the great event of independence? Does he think more of the beauty of sparklers and sky rockets than of the solemn service of praise to God for the strength that he gave Americans to fight their battles for independence?

Are We Lax? Have we failed in our teaching of patriotism in years gone by? Are we paying for our laxity by inviting an insidious invader that would rob our youth of old-fashioned respect for home and country? Is "My Country 'Tis of Thee" becoming almost obsolete?

Silent Firecrackers. Let us make firecrackers. Use your favorite cookie dough recipe and color dough red. Roll the dough like a firecracker between your fingers, stick a white string into the top and bake at 375 degrees. Serve with grape or cherry juice. One batch of cookie dough will make several dozen cookies.

White Syrup Jelly. Perhaps you worry that your jelly will crystallize or that it will be too sweet. This syrup jelly I like best of all. The recipe may apply to raspberry, strawberry, blackberry, grape or any kind of juice.

Use 3½ cups juice, 4½ cups white corn syrup and one package of any powdered pectin. Mix pectin and juice and bring to a rolling boil. Add syrup, stirring constantly and bring to a boil. Then boil for one minute if jelly test is made, if not boil longer. Remove from range, skim and pour into hot, sterilized glasses. If jelly does not thicken, you may return to range and boil again. It will not crystallize.

Raspberry Cobbler. Use rich biscuit or shortcake dough. Line baking dish. Add a layer of prepared raspberries, then a mixture of a teaspoon flour with one-half cup granulated sugar or less if desired. Dot with butter and cream. Add another layer of raspberries, flour and sugar, butter and cream and fold edges over berries. Bake at 450 degrees for a few minutes or until crust is brown, then reduce heat to 350 until berries are cooked. This method makes a delicious cobbler.

IN THE MAIL

Strawberry Sauce. Wash the strawberries before capping, instead of after. Measure one cup of crushed strawberries, two-thirds cup of granulated sugar, one egg white. Beat all together with a Dover egg beater. Serve over a cake or a pudding.—Katheryn Watrous.

Golden Jam. Five cups diced, pink rhubarb, unpeeled, five cups granulated sugar, one pound of candy orange sections. Cut rhubarb and candy in small pieces. Let boil until mixture thickens and drops two drops at a time. Pour into hot, sterilized glasses and seal.—Christine M. Crook.

Asparagus Hint. When preparing asparagus for cooking, grasp the top and bottom firmly and bend in a bow. The asparagus will snap, leaving the tender portion and the tough part divided. This method is faster and surer than cutting with a knife until you come to the part that is too tough to cook.—Charlotte Keplinger.

We are glad when our readers provide us with "In The Mail" recipes and household helps. Look for this column again next Thursday.

Maybe It's A Special Party

Maybe the party is a belated one for a recent graduate—or it could be for no reason at all other than a party for party's sake.

"Anyway, these vacation days, all you need for a party is a big cake and a cool drink—You can deck the cake with commencement attire or bridal finery—or maybe with 'Happy Birthday'—

However, if you want to be a bit more special than the cake and long, cool drink—try this party salad of sliced peaches (canned ones are elegant enough), lemon gelatin and cottage cheese—Here is how you do it:

PEACH PARTY LOAF.

INGREDIENTS: 2 packages lemon-flavored gelatin, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup syrup from canned cling peaches, 1 1/2 cups pineapple juice, 1 1/2 cups sliced cling peaches, 2 tablespoons chopped pimento, 1 1/4 cups creamed cottage cheese, 1/2 cup finely diced celery, salad greens.

METHOD: Dissolve gelatin and 1/2 teaspoon of the salt in the heated peach syrup and pineapple juice. Cool until slightly thickened. Arrange drained peaches and pimento in bottom of an oiled loaf pan (8x4x3 inches). Cover with half the gelatin mixture. Chill until set. Blend cottage cheese, celery, and the remaining 1/2 teaspoon salt into remaining gelatin; pour over peach layer. Chill until firm. Unmold onto salad greens. Slice and serve with salad dressing. Makes 8 servings.

Parkerhouse rolls that have been buttered and heated in the oven, or thin slices of nut bread spread with butter, would be delicious with the salad, iced tea or coffee, or ginger ale, would be perfectly appropriate for the accompanying beverage. And just to top things off you might have a plate of homemade chocolate fudge or penuche.

neau was facing bankruptcy he fell on his knees and promised God that if He would show him a way out, he would start tithing for Jesus, and today he is one of the largest manufacturers of machinery in the world. God does not use all of His children in the same way, but to those who after conversion practice the tithe He is able to give wisdom to make the nine-tenths go farther than the ten tenths would, or in other words God has given them a bigger shovel. A man said to me one time: "The thief on the cross did not tithe and he went to Paradise." Yes, that is true but if he had lived I believe he would have made the proper restitution and been a tither. While he was a dying thief, are there not many living thieves in the world today?"

Man Holds Power To Destroy World, Dr. Burnham Warns

WAYNE, Neb.—(AP)—"An aspirin tablet holds enough energy to destroy Lincoln within the twinkling of an eye," Dr. Archer L. Burnham told a Wayne college convocation Wednesday.

The address by Dr. Burnham, executive secretary of the Nebraska Education association, launched a one-day professional relations institute here.

"Man now holds the power to destroy world. He must realize that his tomorrow will not be the same as his yesterday," Dr. Burnham said. "The principle that war and peace must be established first in the minds of men is paramount in shaping mankind's tomorrow."

"Success or failure of United Nations organization since it is not constituted as super-government depends upon the actions and agreements of sovereign member nations," he continued.

"Teachers and schools may exert needed influence to build man's tomorrow. We have 30 million youngsters of school age in the present generation. Their education is a challenge to teachers, for it can establish world neighborliness which will prevent destruction of the world with great new powers of mankind."

Sandhill Lakes, Which Disappeared In 30s, Returning

A state irrigation bureau engineer has gone to Antioch, Neb., to investigate flooding of valuable hay land.

R. H. Willis, chief of the bureau at Bridgeport, is scheduled to visit the area Friday.

"There is nothing we're legally required to do. Whether we can do anything at all is doubtful," State Engineer F. H. Kletsch declared.

He said many sandhill lakes which disappeared during the drought years of the 1930's have returned. Many are higher now than they were before.

Some residents of the area place part of the blame for the Antioch situation on a ditch cut during the war to drain the Alliance air base.

Sunday brunch . . . especially on a right springtime Sunday . . . can easily win honors as the most memorable meal of the week. Whether you make it a time for entertaining very special friends, or whether you reserve this happy occasion just for your family, you are certain to want the meal itself to be extra-delicious.

Here is a complete menu which can be partly prepared on Saturday, and easily finished while you are making the coffee on Sunday.

SUNDAY BRUNCH
Glazed Baked Apples, chilled, with cream
Eggs Benedict
Coffee

One of the most delectable of all breakfast fruits is a baked apple. Bake them the day before they are to be used and serve them frosty cold with cream.

Eggs Benedict have been a long-time favorite of just about everybody; but the last-minute preparation of the required Hollandaise sauce has discouraged most homemakers from serving them often. So we've found an excellent recipe for the sauce which can be made a day in advance and stored in the refrigerator for later use.

And don't overlook that most-important part of this meal—the coffee! Make it sparkling fresh, serve it steaming hot, and be sure to make lots of it. After all, there are few pleasures in this world that compare with a leisurely second cup of coffee on a lazy Sunday morning.

EGGS BENEDICT
8 slices Canadian bacon or cooked ham
8 poached eggs
4 English muffins split and toasted

Hollandaise Sauce
Place Canadian bacon or ham on toasted English muffins; top with poached eggs; garnish with Hollandaise sauce. Serve two eggs to each person. Yield: 4 servings.

HOLLANDAISE SAUCE
2 egg yolks
1/2 teaspoon salt
Dash cayenne
8 tablespoons melted butter
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored. Add salt and cayenne. Add, a little at a time, while beating, 3 tablespoons melted butter. Add alternately, while beating, remaining butter and lemon juice, a small portion of each at a time. Chill until ready to serve, then heat over warm (not hot) water until softened. Yield: 4 generous servings.

Watches Taken—Guy Patton, 1811 South Forty-first, reported to police the theft within the past three weeks of two watches from a dresser drawer in his home. One, a ladies watch, was valued at $15, and the other, a man's watch, at $40.

Services Saturday For Raymond Pilot

Funeral services for First Lt. Norman L. Backstrom, 26, Raymond, who was killed in an airplane crash near Overton, Nev., will be held Saturday, 2 p. m., at the First Lutheran church, Seventeenth and A.

Rev. Clarence P. Hall will officiate and burial will be in Wyuka.

Only the brave

BY PAUL EVAN LEHMAN

Chapter 16

Jeff had just finished his work when Jeb King arrived. At sight of Jeb his eyes warmed and he invited the Crown owner to alight and come into the house.

"Glenn told us about the poison of your Herefords," Jeb said. "It's the dirtiest kind of trick, and I can't believe any cattleman, even Chuck Gale, could do such a thing."

"That's right, Mr. King. It doesn't look like the work of a cattleman, yet Chuck's the only man I can think of that owes me a grudge."

Jeff made a tired gesture. "That's all right as a theory; what I've got to have before I can make a move is proof. The best thing to do is to try and trace that poison."

"Find out what it was?"

"Arsenic."

"Meanwhile, what are you aiming to do for a living?"

"I've got to get me a job. Fact is, Mr. King, I intended asking you if you could use another hand on the Crown."

"I sure could; but not you, Jeff. You're cut out for bigger things than just ridin' range. Why not let me stock you up? Business proposition entirely: I'd hold a mortgage on the stock and the homestead."

"No, sir. I appreciate the offer more than I can say, but I'm going to stand on my own feet or not at all."

"Hm-m-m." Jeb observed him from beneath shaggy brows. "Well, here's somethin' else, then. You're worth more than a cow-hand job would pay. John Stover's dead and the marshal's job is open. If you take it, you'll have every chance to run down the no-good son who poisoned your cattle. I can land the job for you, and Cougar'll thank me for gettin' such a good man for 'em. It pays a hundred and twenty a month. How does that strike you?"

Jeff straightened in his chair, his eyes brightening. What Jeb had said was true; Cougar needed a marshal and he knew he could fill the job. But what appealed to him was the chance to track down the man who had poisoned the cattle.

"Well, I—"

"You'll take it?" Jeb got up. "Fine! See me in the bank tomorrow mornin' and get your badge."

Glenn Gleason sat in his law office at Briscoe studying some papers on the desk before him. The door opened and a man silently stepped into the room. Glenn looked up.

"Good evenin', Mister Gleason," said Slug Benjamin.

Gleason got slowly to his feet. "What are you doing here?"

Slug came forward to the edge of the light, his hand resting lightly on the butt of the gun on his hip. "Just a friendly little call, Mister Gleason, to collect my share of the dust you pinched from Sam Tolson's cabin."

Glenn rounded his desk and sat down on a corner. "I don't get the joke, Slug—if it's supposed to be a joke. I didn't steal Sam's gold."

"My hunch still says you got it," insisted Slug coldly. "I don't know how much you got, but I'll settle for five hundred dollars' worth."

"You'll settle for five hundred? You certainly have gall, Slug. In the first place, I didn't take Sam's gold; in the second, it's you who owes me five hundred. And you even owe me for about ten dollars' worth of grub you took, to say nothing of the horse and rig you used."

"Don't be funny," advised Slug. "You can write that extra five hundred off against experience. Just like you'll write this five hundred you're goin' to fork out right now." His hand had tightened on the gun butt and there was grim purpose in his eyes.

Glenn slowly turned away. "All right. You win, Slug."

He half turned and his right hand streaked to the Derringer which he wore in a holster under his left arm. He jerked the weapon out and leveled it across his chest at Slug, catching the unsuspecting gunman flat-footed.

"Put up your hands, Slug! Quick! Drop the glove. That's right. . . Now draw that six-shooter slowly and with the fingers of your left hand. . . Easy! Keep the muzzle down. Now drop it."

The gun thudded to the floor and Glenn relaxed, going around the desk and seating himself. The Derringer did not waver. He sat there for a moment thinking.

"I guess I ought to hand you over to the law, Slug. You'd hang, you know. But that wouldn't get me the five hundred you owe me, would it? Or do you happen to have it with you, Slug?"

He got up, came around the desk, his gun still menacing the man.

"Turn around. Keep your hands up."

Slug reluctantly turned, and Glenn, nudging him in the back with the Derringer, proceeded to search him. He found a wallet with a few notes in it, but no money belt, no other cache where money could be hidden. He stepped back.

"Rustle up that five hundred, Slug, and leave it where I can get it. I'm letting you go this time. If you haven't paid up by next time we meet, you won't find me so soft-hearted. Now get out, and get out fast. And don't come back—unless you bring the five hundred with you."

His face contorted with anger and humiliation, Slug backed out of the room.

Glenn closed and locked the door after him. He picked up the gun and glove Slug had dropped, stood for a moment turning them over in his hands, then went to the desk and put them in the bottom drawer.

North Platte Baby Suffocates In Crib

NORTH PLATTE, Neb.—(AP)—James Michael Still, six-month-old son of Mrs. Patricia Still, suffocated in his crib Tuesday.

Efforts of the fire department to revive him were unavailing. He apparently had turned over on his face in his crib and was unable to breathe.

The family said the boy is kept by his grandmother while his mother works. The grandmother, Mrs. Florence Palmer, said she was doing a washing while the boy slept.

Grain Storage Program Is Outlined

Details Of Loan Plan Explained

...By PMA Chairman

Details of the government's recently enacted grain storage program were released Thursday by Frank W. Reed, chairman of the Nebraska Production and Marketing Administration.

"Distress" loans on wheat stored in temporary ways, loans for construction of farm storage, and emergency purchase of bins by the Commodity Credit Corporation are all part of the plan to develop more adequate storage for farm commodities, Reed explained.

Highlights of the program as summarized by Reed are:

1. The grain loan program will be liberalized through the immediate granting of "distress" loans to farmers in all areas where the climate permits storage of wheat for short periods on the ground in the open, or in other temporary ways. These distress loans, at 75 per cent of the full support level, will later be converted into a regular loan when the farmer builds or acquires approved farm storage, which must be within 90 days. The farmer will receive the balance of the full price-support loan (90 per cent of parity) when the grain is in his new storage.

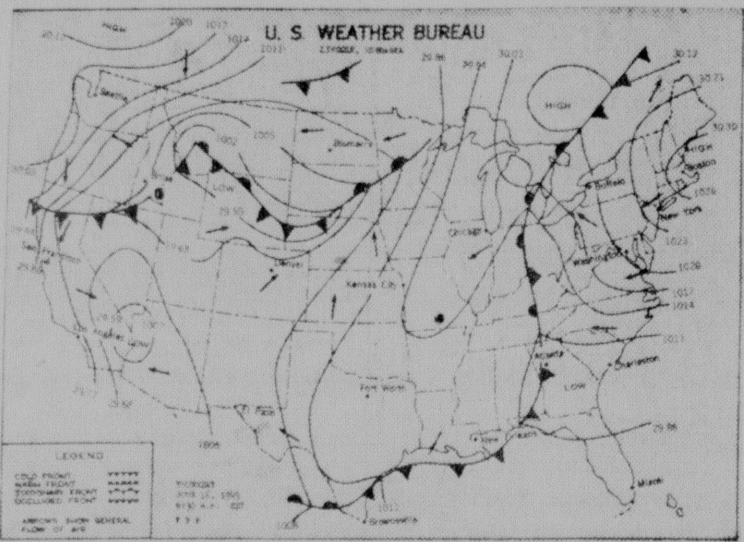

Emergency Storage. 2. Where wheat may be left in open or in other temporary storage and adequate storage is not available to farmers, CCC will undertake to find suitable emergency storage, such as government-owned war-surplus facilities, thus enabling farmers to take advantage of the distress loan program.

(Farmers should check with their local county agricultural conservation committee before taking steps to qualify under the distress loan program.)

3. CCC will make loans to farmers for the purchase or construction of farm storage to the extent of 85 per cent of the cost. Loans will be payable in five annual installments or earlier at the farmer's option.

To Confer With Officials.

4. Manufacturers and suppliers of on-the-farm type of grain storage will meet with department of agriculture officials to help pave the way for early delivery to farmers of the largest possible amount of storage and storage materials.

WEATHER BUREAU SUMMARY—Moderate to heavy rains have fallen during the past 24 hours over a belt extending from the lower Lake region southeastward and southward to the south Atlantic and east gulf coasts. Some very heavy amounts were reported from southern Tennessee and western North Carolina; Chattanooga, Tennessee had 4.85 inches. Light showers have fallen along the west gulf coast, northern Minnesota, and the north Pacific coast region, but the remainder of the country has been enjoying fair weather during the past 24 hours. Hot weather prevails over the southwestern and extreme northeastern portions of the country, but temperatures are only seasonably warm elsewhere. High temperatures yesterday were above 100 degrees over the interior valleys of California, and 110 degrees or higher over much of the southern Arizona and southeastern California desert. The low pressure area which extends from southwestern Montana to northwestern Nebraska is causing fresh to strong south to southwest winds over the central great plains states, with clear to partly cloudy skies, and rather low humidity.

5. When other storage is not available, CCC will contract for bins for storage of CCC-owned or controlled grain stocks, thus helping farmers, grain dealers, and the railroads to handle the volumes of grain coming in at the peak of harvest. This is regarded as a temporary measure to supplement existing storage only as necessary to meet urgent current needs. The bins will be placed on leased or purchased sites at strategic points throughout the country; when not needed by CCC, the bins will be subject to lease by farmers or groups of farmers.

Reclamation Cuts Facing Resistance

Senate Feels Each Project Should Be Judged On Merits

WASHINGTON — (AP)—The flat 15 per cent cut made by the house in reclamation construction funds apparently is up against stiff resistance in the senate.

Sen. Hayden (D-Ariz.), chairman of an appropriations subcommittee, closed the hearing on the interior department money bill yesterday with indications that each project will be judged largely on its own merits.

Wherry Supports Hayden. He was supported by Sen. Wherry (R-Neb.), who said of the house action:

"It just seems to me this way of doing it endangers some of these appropriations."

The existence of continuing contracts—those already entered into which extend into the next fiscal year when the interior bill becomes effective—will make a flat cut on all projects difficult, Hayden said.

Six Dams Under Way.

Assistant Secretary of Interior William E. Warne said that in the case of the $87,150,000 recommended by the budget bureau for the Missouri valley project, only about $9,000,000 could possibly be affected by any change in prices. Warne told the senate appropriations subcommittee that six major dams in the valley development plan are under construction contracts and five more will be added within the next nine months.

Those for which contracts have been let, he said, are Angostura in South Dakota; Kortes and Boyesen in Wyoming; Enders and Medicine creek in Nebraska, and Heart Butte in North Dakota.

The reclamation bureau's schedule also calls for a quick start on the Trenton dam in Nebraska, he said.

Daniel Freeman's Daughter Is Dead

BEATRICE, Neb.—Funeral services for Mrs. Eliza F. Carre, first white child born on the Daniel Freeman homestead, were held here Thursday morning. She died Monday.

Mrs. Carre was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Freeman, whose homestead was the first in the U. S.

Surviving are two sons, Ed L. Beatrice, and Dean W. Omaha; four daughters, Mrs. Mabel Carpenter, Beatrice, Mrs. Grace Miller, Los Angeles, Mrs. Eloise Mulligan, Muskegon, Mich., and Mrs. Bernice Williams, Parma, O.; three brothers and one sister.

Home Extensionists Named In 2 Counties

Two new home extension agents have been named for Nebraska counties. Miss Lucille Erlevine has joined the Keith county extension service at Ogallala and Mrs. Althea Byers of David City is the new home agent in Butler county.

Two recent graduates of the University of Nebraska are taking home agent training. Phyllis Ross of Lincoln is training in Red Willow county at McCook and Betty Beckner of Beatrice is studying extension in Dawson county at Lexington.

oment plan are under construction contracts and five more will be added within the next nine months.

Wet Weather Causes Heavy Nitrogen Loss

The cool, wet weather this spring in Nebraska has caused a heavy demand for nitrogen by the small grain crops, and nitrogen deficiency is common this year in all sections of the state, ag experts report.

The University of Nebraska soils department said Friday the symptoms of nitrogen deficiency are stunting, delayed heading and yellowing. The lower leaves tend to become yellow first and may die prematurely.

Dr. H. F. Rhoades reported heavy winter moisture caused considerable leaching of the soil, resulting in nitrogen deficiency.

In some of the central and southern parts of the state where corn planting is being delayed, the agronomy department says grain sorghums may be the logical replacement.

The department recommended two combine grain sorghums, Midland and Martin, as giving excellent yields and maturing in 100 days.

Judge Simmons Main Speaker At Pony Express Ceremonies

...Gothenburg Way Station Site Of Service

GOTHENBURG, Neb.—(AP)—A simple log building which during 1860 and 1861 was a way station for the famed pony express will be recognized anew Sunday.

It is the old Fred Machette pony express station moved to the city park here and dedicated in 1932.

The ceremonies Sunday will mark the end of the 1949 pony express ride Saturday and Sunday during which Nebraska horse clubs will carry mail from east to west borders of the state to Gothenburg in a pony express re-enactment.

Chief Justice Robert G. Simmons of the Nebraska Supreme court, who gave the 1932 dedicatory speech, will again be the principal speaker. In 1932 he was representative in congress from the old fifth district.

Another highlight of the program will be stories of historic trails by Paul Henderson of Bridgeport, Neb., national authority on historic trails.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson and Tom Green of Scottsbluff are the only remaining members of a club formed 25 years ago to study archaeology and paleontology. They specialized in trails and have 50 original diaries written on and at the time of the trails. They also have the "PX" brand used on pony express horses.

The program in the Gothenburg city park will be given at the finish of the reenactment of the ride. The ride begins Saturday at Pine Bluffs, Wyo., and Scottsbluff on the west border, and Sunday at Blair on the eastern border. Riders will meet in Gothenburg.

The horsemen, just as their pony express forebears did, will gallop in relays across the state, passing the mail pouch ahead to awaiting riders. Mail pouches will contain letters from public officials and club members, which will be cancelled at the pony express postoffice here before being returned to the senders for their philatelic interest.

Frank Hager, 83, Clay Center, Dies

Besides his wife he is survived by a son, Orville, Denver; two daughters, Mrs. Helen Pickell, Lincoln, and Mrs. Erma Johnson, Clay Center; a brother, three sisters, three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Busier Days Ahead

IF THERE IS NOT TOO MUCH excitement this week end, the one next week will more than make up for any lack of activity.

Saturday, June 25, is more or less the beginning of the nineteenth annual tournament of the Women's Trans-Mississippi Golf association, and will be played on the Lincoln Country club course.

Although the qualifying rounds will not be played until Tuesday, June 28, Saturday, Sunday and Monday will be devoted to practice rounds, with an exhibition match on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock—June 26.

THE TWO WEEK-ENDS, one preceding and one including the actual tournament, are filled with social events for the entrants—

On Sunday, June 25, there will be a welcome party for all tournament entrants at the LCC—On Monday, June 27, there is a swimming show scheduled for 4 o'clock—and on Tuesday evening, June 28, there will be a Calcutta pool dinner at the Lincoln Country club, followed by a Calcutta pool drawing.

On Thursday evening, June 30, there will be a Country club derby at the host club—and on Friday evening a buffet supper when the tournament entrants will be guests of the Men's Golf association of the Lincoln Country club and Hillcrest Country club—

On Saturday evening, July 2, there will be a dinner dance at the LCC, and Sunday the tournament ends.

SERVING AS CHAIRMEN of the various social activity committees are Mrs. Walter Henrion who heads the committee for the welcoming party; Mrs. Adna Dolson, the swimming show; Mrs. William Mowbray, the Country Club derby; Mrs. Charles Pierce, the two-ball foursome, and Mrs. Edwin J. Faulkner, chairman of the dinner dance committee and general entertainment chairman.

Joan Carothers, Bride Of Ensign Keatinge Keays

The marriage of Miss Joan Carothers, daughter of Dr. P. H. Carothers and Mrs. M. C. Carothers of Broken Bow, to Ensign Keatinge Keays, U.S.N., son of Mr. and Mrs. Parke F. Keays of Broken Bow, was solemnized at high noon Thursday, June 9, at St. John's church, Episcopal, at Broken Bow. The Rev. William E. Craig, minister of St. Stephen's church, Episcopal, at Grand Island, read the lines of the ceremony in the presence of the members of the families.

Pedestal baskets filled with white and rose gladioli marked the chancel steps, and the altar was arranged with bouquets of white carnations and lighted candles in bronze candelabra. Tall white candles decorated with sprays of greenery and white satin ribbon, also marked each pew the length of the processional aisle.

As the candles were lighted by John Stevens and Howard Kennedy, a prelude of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. L. G. Sullivan, organist, who also played the wedding music.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. George Vaughn, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary Martha Carothers, sister of the bride, who wore identical frocks of waffle pique in the wild rose shade. Brief cap sleeves and tulip necklines designed the fitted bodices, and the full gathered skirts were trimmed with cording of the pique. They wore Juliet caps of matching pique and carried bouquets of blue-tinted carnations.

Following a short wedding trip to the west coast, the couple will reside at San Diego, Cal., where Ensign Keays will be assigned to the destroyer, U.S.S. Hamner.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's hospital school of nursing at Rochester, Minn., and is a former student of New York university. Ensign Keays graduated from the U. S. Naval academy, Annapolis, Md., earlier this month.

MRS. DONALD PAUL BABSON

Because we thought that the marriage of Susan Charlotte Averill to Donald Paul Babson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Babson of Wellesley Hills, Mass., would be of interest to the many Lincoln friends of the bridegroom, we have borrowed the following story of the wedding from the Birmingham, Mich., newspaper—

Carrying a cascade arrangement of white orchids and roses with ivy trails, Miss Susan Charlotte Averill became the bride of Donald Paul Babson in an evening ceremony Friday at Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt, assisted by the Rev. W. Glen Harris, officiated at the double ring rites in a setting of white gladioli, stock and peonies against a background of candelabra.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Averill of Rivenoak avenue are the bride's parents and Mr. Babson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Babson of Wellesley, Mass.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in traditional white. Three tiers of illusion of graded length formed her wedding veil and fell from an open crown of satin. The softly curved brim was highlighted with seed pearls and iridescent sequins in a flower motif. Her candlelight satin gown was fashioned with a deep sweetheart neckline and was edged with a tiny ruffle of tulle as were the long, pointed sleeves. The fitted bodice was cut with a v-shaped panel in the front and a wide satin band at the hips formed points in front and in back. The skirt of unpressed pleats was full and swept into a long train.

Attending Miss Averill were her sister-in-law, Mrs. George William Averill of Berkeley as matron of honor and Miss Lynn Lyle of Birmingham who was honor maid. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Charles Chapman of Detroit; Mrs. Jack Burket of Royal Oak; Miss Marion Parker of Grosse Pointe; Miss Bernice Horn of Lansing and Mrs. Delvin Cadillac of Detroit.

All were dressed in green and silver striped metallic chambray gowns styled with high sweetheart necklines, long sleeves, fitted bodices and long straight skirts featuring darts starting over the hips in front to form a point in back. Floating panels of pleats formed from this point. Silver cords trimmed their open crown caps made of the same material as their gowns.

Mrs. Averill carried a bouquet of rhubrum lilies and light pink roses with ivy trails. Miss Lyle's bouquet was of deep pink roses and ivy while the bridesmaids' flowers were red roses and ivy.

Fred I. Brown, jr., of Boston, Mass., served as best man and the guests were seated by Harold Raynolds of New York City; Dwight Hollister of Wellesley Hills, Mass.; John Devaney of Toronto, Ont.; Craig Greason of Garden City, L. I.; and brothers of the bride, John Mills Averill of Birmingham and George William Averill of Berkeley.

For the ceremony and reception which followed at the Oakland Hills Country club, the bride's mother wore a dress of toast colored lace and crepe with a hat of matching maline trimmed with dusty pink bows.

A's Edge Pueblo; Move Into Third

TRIUMPH 4-3 IN ELEVEN INNINGS; ALIPERTO DRIVES IN WINNING RUN

BY NORRIS ANDERSON
(Sports Editor, The Star)

A NEVER-SAY-DIE Lincoln nine that had plumbed the depths of mediocrity in earlier 1949 warfare Wednesday night caromed to third place in the Western league.

Sweet charity patted the A's on the back and turned the trick that has failed brasher efforts as league-leading Pueblo fell, 4-3, in 11 thrill-spangled innings.

Boss Jimmy DeShong's happy warriors thus moved one percentage point ahead of Sioux City, a Denver victim.

After the respective hearts of 2,128 thrill-soaked patrons had played hopscotch for two extra innings, Joe Aliperto stepped to the plate with runners on second and third in the eleventh.

Jolting Joe sighted four of Joe O'Hara's overhands and nailed a waist-high curve.

The ball skittered between third and short for what appeared a scratch single, hardly calculated to bring in Bobby Kennedy from third.

But Shortstop Les Barnes, only recently recovered from an emergency appendectomy, kicked the roller over the foul line as he fielded it. While Barnes fiddled, Kennedy burned home with the winning run.

Kennedy had made the base paths on Barnes' previous boot of and away went the ball on a long fly to centerfield.

In romped Rocco The Rock with the tying run.

Lew Fauth, the collar-add hand-some native of Buffalo, N. Y., was coasting merrily along on a four-hitter, up to the Pueblo section of the eighth.

A's LEAD, 2-0.

Lincoln led, 2-0, and Fauth appeared invincible as the bottom sector of the Dodgers' batting order faced the eighth.

Seven minutes later when the inning ended, Pueblo led, 3-2, and the Fauth victory celebration appeared headed for a wake.

It all happened on singles by Les Barnes and Joe Torrey, a walk by Jim Williams and dependable Danny Holden's three-run double off the leftfield fence.

Lincoln picked up a run in the first when Bobby Stewart made the rounds on a single to rightfield, a stolen base and Ippolito's leftfield single.

The A's added another in the seventh. This time Ippolito went the route when he was hit by the pitcher, reached second on the first of two Limmer sacrifices and boomed home on Tommy Kirk's crisp single to right.

Aside from the eighth, Fauth held the drivers' reins. He yielded nine hits, but scattered them from Seward and back the southern route.

STEWART SPARKLES.

Bobby Stewart, the A's rifle-armed shortstop, took care of 11 chances without a boggle.

Ray Partee's against-the-wall stab of Bob Wakefield's tremendous smash in the eighth ended the Dodge rally and prevented certain extra damage.

Ippolito's three singles, plus Limmer's brace of two one-baggers, accounted for five of the A's nine hits.

With the series deadlocked at 1-1, Freddy Wells will toss for Lincoln in the rubber game tonight.

Cincinnati has employed 421 different pitchers in 74 years of major league ball, and 89 of them were never credited with a decision.

The latest treatment for mental illness is laughing gas. According to the medics, laughing gas releases your secret fears and before you know it you're as relaxed as a bride's father after the wedding is over.

As a long time exponent of the chuckle and the rib-tickler we can see a load of logic in the idea. A sense of humor can serve as a shock absorber over many of life's worst bumps.

As the poet said, "Laugh and the world laughs with you." If you sit around brooding, you collect nothing but wrinkles. So maybe the doctors have something. If you've got trouble, breathe deeply . . . and laugh it off.

A Los Angeles mother discovered her little girl sucking glue out of a bottle. For a while she was the most stuck up kid in town. There's nothing stuck up about our used car and truck prices. They are really sitting on rock bottom.

A's Option Al Bower; Sign Dewey Melton

The Lincoln Athletics Wednesday signed Dewey Melton, right-handed hurler, according to an announcement by Business Manager Howard Gordon.

Melton has been working out with the A's and is ready for mound work.

Last year, Melton had a six and three record for Sarnaw, Michigan in the Class A Central league.

The Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast loop gave him a brief trial this season.

Pitcher Al Bower has been optioned to Martinsville, Va., an Athletic Class B farm team. Gordon also announced that another pitcher, Hank Drizalma, has been returned to Montgomery, Ala., of the South Eastern league. Drizalma has been hampered by a sore pitching arm this season. He has one victory to his credit for Lincoln.

After being temporarily disabled for five days, Pitcher Jim MacFaden has returned to the active player list.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Budget Of City, County Health Unit $131,940

The Lincoln-Lancaster county health department will operate on a $131,940 budget for the coming fiscal year.

The amount approved by the city-county health board at a Wednesday night meeting is $8,000 above the fund appropriated for the past year.

The higher budget—made possible partly by county commissioners who agreed to furnish an extra $8,000 in county funds—carried a number of salary increases, including a $1,300 a year hike for Dr. Fred Long, director of the department.

Understaffed.

Dr. Long will receive $8,500 for the next fiscal year as compared with the $7,200 which he now receives. This action came after board members had generally agreed that they must pay more than the present salary to retain a competent director.

However, since the budget was not as large as originally hoped, the department will still be forced to operate on an understaffed basis.

Board Chairman Dr. O. V. Calhoun, in voicing approval of the salary increase, stated:

"I hope the board will see fit to gradually raise the director's salary until it is $10,000...where it should be."

Need More Funds.

Twelve hundred dollar salary increments go to the director of public health education and the public health engineer.

In commenting on the budget, which although above the past year is under the department's request, Dr. Long asserted:

"This does not mean we will have to dismiss any nurses. We are already understaffed."

He said the department has been unable to retain competent nurses over long periods of time because of the necessarily low salaries.

Other salary increases are minor, according to merit system scale. The board saw fit to cut the amount for the night physician from last year's $1,800 to $1,200.

Although the department had hoped to expand its dental clinic services it was unable to do so and still come through with the salary increase. There is a "tremendous backlog" of dental appointments. The present dentist works only on a part-time basis.

This is the budget breakdown: From the city, $72,000. ($18,000 of this is in fees from health department services. From the county, $26,000. The county's share for last year was $18,000. From federal and state grants, $33,940.

Although the county is authorized to levy an additional quarter mill for funds to be used for the health department, the commissioners haven't seen fit to do so.

Student Free After Wild Police Chase

...Of Kidnaping Thugs

NEW YORK — (AP) — Four thugs kidnaped a Harvard student from a Park avenue corner early today, but he escaped in the upper east side Manhattan tenement area after a wild, gunfire-punctuated police pursuit.

The student, George H. P. Dwight of New York, survived with scalp wounds after the thieves' stolen car overturned.

Two of the four thugs were captured in a race to a tenement rooftop. One escaped injury when his plunge from a fire escape to another rooftop was broken by a clothesline.

Police began a search for the other two.

Terrytown Not Subterfuge For Selling Liquor

Donald K. Hillerage, of Terrytown, who is seeking a package liquor license, Wednesday denied that the town was incorporated as a subterfuge by Terry Carpenter so that Carpenter could engage in selling liquor.

He argued his case at a hearing before the state liquor commission which has received complaints that incorporation of the town by Carpenter, former candidate for the U. S. senate, was an excuse to sell liquor.

Hillerage produced a copy of his lease with Terry Carpenter, Ltd., a partnership which owns the building in which the business would be located, between Gering and Scottsbluff.

Carpenter described the incorporation of Terrytown in 1948, and told the commission about the community's development.

The objectors were Herschel C. Ellis, Fred Henderson, E. N. Fogleman, Earl E. Rabe, and R. D. Boschult.

Carpenter told the commission Terrytown has a policeman, has several thousand feet of curbing and gutters, sewer line, and has its own disposal plant.

The objectors claim the town was not a validly incorporated municipality. They contended it lacked the required number of residents and had no taxable inhabitants.

Hillerage asserted two of the objectors were liquor retailers in Gering and three were in Scottsbluff. He said they belonged to the Scotts Bluff County Liquor Dealers association and sought a monopoly.

Also on file with the commission was a protest signed by the Rev. Lloyd E. Watt of Gering as secretary of the North Platte Valley Ministerial association.

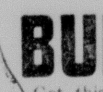

Rokeby District To Keep Grade And High School

The Rokeby school district voted to continue as both an elementary and high school district for the coming school year.

Earlier last spring, the district voted against continuing high school, choosing instead to limit itself to the eight elementary grades.

Albert Sandfort, treasurer of

the school board, said this week's vote was approximately 11 to three. He said he thought that some district members earlier had believed enrollment too small to warrant the expense of continuing with a full 12 grades.

This past year, high school students numbered 15 and the elementary grades 13. The faculty comprised two high school teachers and one grade teacher.

The previous year, total enrollment was 36 students of which 24 were in high school.
